SYNERGIE LEADER IN HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT STRENGTHENS ITS PRESENCE IN THE UNITED KINGDOM

Synergie Group that anticipates full-year 2007 sales of close to €1.2 billion continues to strengthen its international network and confirms the acquisition of 100% of the UK company Concept Staffing.

Concept Staffing is a leading recruitment agency in Southwest England with a network of 14 branches.

Concept Staffing is a full-service provider of human resources management solutions with revenue in 2007 of €26 million. After acquiring Acorn in December 2005 (the leading recruitment agency in Wales) and Advance Personnel in April 2007 (covering Northwest England), Synergie Group has a network in the United Kingdom of 30 branches that places every week more than 5,500 temporary employees with approximately 1,200 customers. In 2007 there have been more than 1,500 permanent placements and 3,000 traineeships.

With the contribution of Concept Staffing, Synergie Group expects total sales in the United Kingdom in 2008 of more than €130 million as it pursues its strategy of focusing on international expansion in strong growth markets offering good earnings potential.
